CALGARY WINS MICRON INVITATIONAL

The Calgary Dinosaurs opened up a four-goal lead and then hung on for a 7-6 victory over the Concordia Stingers to win the 4th Annual Micron Invitational Hockey Tournament this weekend at Concordia. Tournament MVP Ron Pierce scored what proved to be the winner with less than eight minutes to play giving the Dinnies a 7-3 lead, but the Stingers roared back on goals by Brad Hood, Brian Taylor, his third of the game, and Mike Walker to make it close. Gilles Hebert had the other Stinger marker while Bruce Constable with two, Garry Slezak, Darren Halasz, Grant Fagerheim and Trevor Erhardt scored the other goals for the Dinosaurs.

Calgary earned a berth in the final by dumping top-ranked University of Toronto Blues 8-7 in overtime in the Tournaments opening game on Friday night. Grant Fagerheim's third goal of the game, with 30 seconds remaining, forced the extra period and Ron Pierce fired his second to win it after 20 minutes and 14 seconds. Ken Duggan had two for the Blues.

Concordia edged Dalhousie 5-4 in the other Friday semi-final. Kevin McGovern's goal after 26 minutes of overtime won it for the Stingers, after Dalhousie had battled back from a 4-2 deficit late in the game to tie. Brian Gualazzi had two goals for the Tigers while Randy Edmonds, Claude L'Abb , Mark Kosturik and Ron Stoneburgh scored the other goals for the Stingers.

In the Consolation game Toronto defeated Dalhousie 6-4 on Grant Hanson's two markers.
